

Matt Giuffre:

Matt started playing squash at the age of 6 at the Royal Glenora Club in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada. Progressing through the junior squash ranks and winning each age category at the Canadian National Championships, Matt has also captured the title at the US Junior Open two times as well as the North American Junior Open championship.

At the age of 19, he left junior competition and began playing professionally on the PSA (Professional Squash Association) tour. Since his tour debut in 2002, he has climbed steadily in the rankings from 250 when he first joined, to his all time best ranking of 38 in August 2006.

Matt continues to compete professionally with his sights set on climbing to the top 10 in the world squash rankings in the next few years.

Matt is currently 24 years old, he resides and trains in Edmonton, Alberta, Canada.
